

Underground Sound

C:2

Gary Ryan
(born 1969)

Boldly ♩ = c. 120

The musical score is written for guitar in 4/4 time, key of D major (one sharp). It consists of 13 measures. The tempo is marked 'Boldly' with a quarter note equal to approximately 120 beats per minute. The score includes various musical notations such as fingerings (m, i, a), dynamics (p, mf, f), and articulation (accents, slurs). The bass line is primarily on ledger lines below the staff, consistent with the 'underground' theme.

Gary Ryan is a well-known British guitar soloist and teacher; he is assistant head of strings and guitar professor at the Royal College of Music in London. The title of this specially written piece, he says, refers to the fact that much of the melodic interest is given to the thumb in the bass, 'with many of the notes on ledger lines "underground" below the staff'. He also notes that the piece uses the pentatonic (five-note) scale, requiring the use of only the second and third fingers of the left hand. Occasional syncopations give it 'a slight rock feel' (though the quavers should not be swung).
