The German composer Johannes Brahms settled in Vienna in 1868, and he remained there for the rest of his life. He was a prolific composer of Lieder (songs). His Fünf Lieder (Five Songs), Op. 49 (1868), includes one of the best-known of all his songs: 'Wiegenlied' (Cradle Song). The text is from Des Knaben Wunderhorn (The Youth's Magic Horn), which is a popular collection of German folk poetry.

In Brahms's 'Lullaby', as it is usually called - originally for voice and piano, but here arranged for piano only - the well-known melody is accompanied by a rocking left-hand accompaniment.
