Vampire Blues

Kevin Wooding

Blues rock [$\text{♩} = c.126$]

The musical score for 'Vampire Blues' is written for piano and bass. It is in 4/4 time, key of B-flat major (two flats), and tempo of approximately 126 beats per minute. The score consists of five systems of piano and bass staves. The first system starts with a forte (f) dynamic. The second system has a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic. The third system has a forte (f) dynamic. The fourth system ends with a 'Ped.' (pedal) instruction. Fingerings and articulations are indicated throughout the piece.

Kevin Wooding was born in Australia in 1964 and studied music there and in New Zealand. In 1987 he moved to England and currently works in Oxford as a teacher and composer. 'Vampire Blues', written in 1993, comes from Spooky Piano Time, edited by Pauline Hall and Kevin Wooding. The composer has written: 'You must count steadily and carefully – rests are very important, and there are lots of them. Beware of the vampire's "bite" near the end!'
