The first two lines of this traditional French song are as follows:

Dans la forêt lointaine,	In the distant forest,
On entend le coucou.	You can hear the cuckoo.

In this arrangement, the cuckoo is first heard in the right hand and echoed in the left (bb. 9–10), then heard in the left and echoed in the right (bb. 13–14). Composer Hywel Davies is known for his arrangements of folk music, such as those included in the Folk Roots series published by Boosey & Hawkes.
