Minuet in C

A:2

from First Book of Progressive Lessons

William Duncombe
(fl. late 18th century)

[♩ = c.120]

The musical score for 'Minuet in C' by William Duncombe is presented in a single system with two staves (treble and bass clef). The time signature is 3/4, and the key signature is C major. The tempo is marked as [♩ = c.120]. The score is divided into two sections, A and B, indicated by repeat signs. Section A (measures 1-8) begins with a forte (f) dynamic and a piano (p) dynamic. Section B (measures 9-19) begins with a forte (f) dynamic and ends with a piano (p) dynamic. The score includes fingerings, slurs, and repeat signs.

Little is known of William Duncombe beyond the fact that he lived in London in the late 18th century and was organist of St Dunstan's, Highgate. Many of his keyboard pieces are arrangements of existing music for other instruments, and in some cases by other composers. This minuet has a repeated-note theme (bb. 1-4) that sounds like a trumpet fanfare. The piece is in two sections (A and B, starting at bars 1 and 9), with the first returning at the end (b. 17); this is known as rounded binary form.
