Big Moon, Bright Moon;

Sail-ing so slow-ly high up in the star-ry sky;

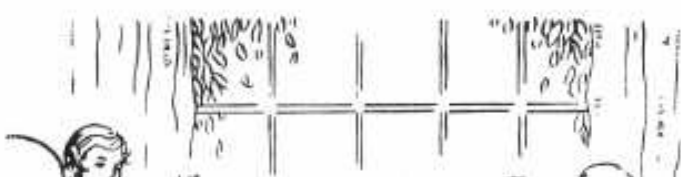

Big Moon, Bright Moon;

Can you see peo-ple so lit-tle as I?

TRANSPOSITION: By means of FINGER PATTERNS the pupil should now be taught to transpose the C major pieces into the key of G major and vice versa. Simply find the five-finger position for the new key and play with the same fingers as in the original key. This idea should be carried on in each new key as learned.

FOLK TUNES. Some of our most beautiful melodies came, not as you might suppose, from the pens of famous composers but from the folk-songs which have come down to us from generation to generation. These melodies originated among the people of their homeland. They
